Module assessment

3 minutes

Module assessment passed

Great job! You passed the module assessment.

Score: 100%

Check your knowledge

1. What activity happens during the pre-processing stage of speech recognition?

- The audio is converted to .wmv format.
- Background noise is added to the audio signal.
- Feature vectors are extracted from the audio waveform for modeling. ✓ Correct

2. What are phonemes?

- Artifacts that are removed from the signal as part of the clean-up process.
- The smallest unit of sound in speech. ✓ Correct
- AI models that generate audio.

3. Why is it important to generate prosody in speech synthesis?

- Prosody maximizes the volume of the audio output.
- Prosody translates the speech to the language of the listener.
- Prosody ensures natural pronunciation and speech cadence. ✓ Correct

Next unit: Summary

< Previous Next >